

2011 Annual Campus Security Report for 2010, K-State Salina

"Our vision at K-State Salina is a campus atmosphere that not only allows success, but encourages excellence. This vision can only be obtained in a safe and secure environment that encompasses the academic, social, recreational, and housing areas of the campus. All members of our K-State family are part of a team that determines and develops this campus atmosphere. Students have a major impact developing an atmosphere through their active involvement and campus leadership. Faculty and staff strive to create structured learning environments using the latest technology in a safe and controlled manner. Alumni and our corporate sponsors share their equipment and safety expertise to enhance the learning environment on the campus. As a result of the collective efforts of the K-State Salina team, a safe and secure environment that will encourage excellence can be established. I encourage you to read and use this material to become an active member of our excellence team."

--Dr. Dennis Kuhlman, CEO and Dean, K-State Salina

Background—Kansas State University Salina

Kansas State University at Salina is a community of more than 180 faculty and staff and approximately 800 students. The 125-acre campus is located in Salina, a city of approximately 47,000 residents. K-State Salina has not experienced a significant number of major crimes in the past, but it must be noted that crime is a national concern that affects us all.

Established in 1965 as the state's first public college of technology, K-State Salina has been growing and changing to meet the needs of business and industry in our state, our nation and the world. The Salina campus is located on the former Schilling Air Force Base and has been known as Schilling Institute, Kansas Technical College, and Kansas College of Technology. In 1991, it merged with Kansas State University and became the ninth college of the University.

Developing a safe and secure environment at an academic institution is the responsibility of the entire community. The Department of Public Safety on the Kansas State University main campus and the Security Department on the Salina campus have the responsibility to identify programs, methods, and approaches to help the Salina campus maintain a reasonably safe and secure environment.

Additional administrative units that assist with campus safety are College Advancement, Student Life, Residence Life, Recreational Services and the Student Governing Association.

Security Department

The Kansas State University Salina Safety/Security Department helps preserve a safe campus environment where diverse social, cultural, and academic values are allowed to develop and prosper. The Safety/Security Department consists of four full-time security officers. One University police sergeant from the Manhattan University Police Department is assigned to the Salina campus to liaison with local law enforcement agencies and direct security services for the Salina campus. The K-State Salina Security Department maintains a close working relationship with local and state law enforcement agencies in an effort to maximize the services provided to the University community.

Responding to Calls

K-State Salina security officers carry cellular telephones and can be reached in case of emergency anytime at 785-826-2909. Emergency calls received by security officers are promptly referred to Police, Ambulance, or Fire Departments as necessary. Security officers also notify the appropriate campus administrator and provide a written incident report on all emergency situations. Criminal investigations, vehicle accidents, and / or moving violations are referred to the Salina Police Department.

Salina police officers periodically drive through the campus as part of their routine patrol practices. The Salina Police and Fire Department respond to all police and fire calls on the campus. Offenses occurring off campus are recorded daily in the Salina newspaper. The Salina Police Department and Saline County Sheriff's Office furnish limited information to the University about crimes occurring adjacent to the campus. The University attempts to monitor off-campus incidents and alerts the University community of those incidents that may be of concern to the safety and welfare of University community members.

Crime Prevention

Crime prevention demands constant interaction and outreach to the community. The K-State Salina Security Department distributes materials directed toward familiarizing students, faculty, and staff with their responsibility in reducing criminal opportunity. Crime prevention brochures, posters, and handouts are used to help make all members of the campus community aware of the potential for crime. K-State Salina Security relies on the media to present information to the community about situations that may pose a potential threat to its members. The Office of Student Life and the Office of Residence Life additionally offer programs, information, and resources to students, faculty, and staff in order to provide further opportunities for campus community members to educate and protect themselves while helping to prevent crime.

Emergency Notification System

Kansas State University officials use the following means of communication to alert the university community about a crisis, danger, or natural disaster:

- Reverse 911 telephone calling system. A thirty second recorded message from Kansas State Police sent to cell phones and land lines. Offers a summary of the situation and instructions.
- Text messaging. Sent to cell phones of students, staff, and faculty on the Manhattan and Salina campuses.
- Webpage override. All web pages at www.k-state.edu or www.salina.k-state.edu automatically redirected to emergency information page.
- E-mail advisory.
- Tornado warning sirens. K-State Salina has a tornado siren located on the south west end of campus.
- Local media. K-State Salina Public Relations Office provides information and updates to area radio and local news stations.
- Campus Security. Security personnel have radio connections with local Salina police office.

Emergency Guide: K-State Salina also provides an Emergency Guide to the entire campus community that provides Emergency Numbers, Evacuation Procedures, Medical Procedures, Fire, Tornado and Severe Weather Information, and other emergency situations. This guide is found at <http://www.salina.k-state.edu/emergency/index.html>.

Student Life Office: In the event of a crisis situation or in the prevention of future crimes, the Student Life Office at K-State Salina will proactively inform the campus community via the text message alert system (K-State Alerts), an all campus email, or campus memo. The Assistant Director of College Advancement for Student Life is the chair of the Critical Incident Response Team (CIRT) on the K-State Salina campus. The CIRT is to assess and coordinate the response to significant campus situations and events that require intervention in order to assist the community and its members return to a more normal state of functioning and to suggest future preventative measures.

How to Report Crimes and Other Emergencies Occurring On-Campus

Preventing campus crime is a shared responsibility between K-State Salina and its campus community members. Public apathy is a criminal's greatest ally. Campus community members should not assume that someone else has reported suspicious or criminal activity. Suspicion is the only reason anyone needs for calling the police. Crimes, suspicious activity, or other emergencies on campus should be reported immediately. If a campus community member suspects a crime has been or is being committed, s/he should call campus security at 785-826-2952 or 785-826-2909, or call the Salina Police Department immediately at 9-911. K-State at Salina Security offices are located in the former Student Activities Center (SAC) building, and are always available by phone when they are on patrol. K-State Salina Security officers will immediately report to the scene of a reported or suspected crime.

Campus Crime Statistics and Crime Rates

In accordance with the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990, statistical data on criminal incidents (reported to Salina Police) and arrest (on the campus) is provided as public information. The data covers a 12-month period, from January 1 through December 31, for each year listed. The offenses listed are offenses included in the statistics compiled in the Uniform Crime Report by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The definitions of these offenses are in accordance with the Uniform Crime Report Definitions. It should be noted that the data included are only those offenses reported to the Campus Security Department and the Salina Police Department that have occurred on the Salina Campus. Statistical data on incidents off the campus involving students are not included, as they are not retrievable from local law enforcement. Additional information regarding crime rates in the community may be obtained from the Salina Police Department.
